Special Sale of Trousers

Last week was our opening and we were gratified, not only because of the liberal patronage we received, but from the fact that many persons who called to buy a little and look at the new store, bought much more than they had at first intended; they were so well pleased with our reasonable prices and our one-price system.

Last week we ran a special sale of Boys' Suits—this week it is Trousers. From now until Saturday, 10 p.m., we shall make a SPECIAL SALE ON MEN'S, YOUTH'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S TROUSERS.

It is generally pretty well known now that we manufacture all our clothing, and our prices are very low, saving you the middle-man's profit, but at this sale you will get a still greater benefit, as we shall make a material reduction from our usual low prices. Our goods are all marked in plain figures, and the discount will be a uniform deduction from the price marked on the tickets.

Our clothing being made by us especially for the retail trade, is substantially and well made, and the material is selected from the best imported and domestic cloths. Come this week for Trousers and save the discount.

Before Being Rescued by Militia He Shoots a Couple of Men and a Woman—The Detroit Strike Results in Riotous Scenes.

EVICTORS MOBBED.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 24.—A serious riot occurred at Monarch Thursday morning which resulted in the fatal wounding of one man and the serious injury of a woman. The sheriff of Fayette county, with his deputies, has been defied, and the sheriff himself assaulted, shot in the ankle and beaten and cut with an ax in the hands of an infuriated Hungarian woman.

Since the ugly Woodrow affair the women have taken the principal part in the strike, and the men either preferring to obey the orders of their leaders and remain inactive or thinking the sheriff and troops will not be so severe where women lead the attacks.

Thursday morning Sheriff McCormick and his deputies went to Leisenring No. 3 to evict ten families of striking Slaves, and as was their experience at Adelaide Wednesday they had a bloody battle with an infuriated mob of men and women. The majority of the company houses at Leisenring No. 3 are situated on a beautiful plateau of about fifteen or twenty acres, overlooking the works in the valley 300 or 400 feet below, and in order to reach the houses the sheriff and his deputies had to march several hundred yards up a steep road fronting the company's store, at which point he ordered the militia, which came up with him from Trotter, to remain until they were needed.

It was about 11 o'clock when the sheriff and his deputies reached house No. 195, occupied by Thomas Tarr. The sheriff at once read the writ of eviction to Tarr, and by the time he was through with it a crowd of three or four hundred men and women had collected in front of the premises. Tarr, with an oath, declined to evacuate the domicile, and seizing an ax he rushed to the door, and the sheriff at once read the writ of eviction to Tarr, and by the time he was through with it a crowd of three or four hundred men and women had collected in front of the premises. NOT MUCH ON SAVING

A Glance at the Work of the Legislature.

SAVED BY REPUBLICANS.

The Law Decreasing the Pay of Clerks Made Possible to Reduce Legislative Expenses—Summary of Important Laws that Were Passed.

MADISON, April 24.—(Special).—The legislature to day finished all of its business. There were introduced one hundred and fifty bills less this year than two years ago, still the session is one day longer, being one hundred and two days. The expenses of the assembly amount to $5,064 less than last session, and the expense of the senate between three and four thousand dollars less; but considering the fact that the present legislature is working under a law passed by the republican legislature of 1889, which cut down the pay of the writing clerks from three to one dollar per day, and for enrolling work from fifteen and twenty cents to ten and fifteen cents, the saving should have been double the amount it actually is, and the further fact that one hundred and fifty less bills were introduced than in 1888, shows that the democratic reform legislature has been exactly the reverse of reform.

The legislature will adjourn tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. During the session the senate passed 151 bills and killed 207. The house passed 338 and killed 476. Among the bills of an important nature which have passed may be mentioned the following: Requiring fire insurance policies to be uniform. The creation of two additional judicial circuits. The acceptance of the war tax to be refunded and its distribution among the several funds. Requiring the destruction of ballots not used after election and doing away with a ballot. Giving the governor power to fill the office of railroad and insurance commissioners when vacancies occur. Making by act, the minimum rate of interest on state loans.

Empowering municipal lawgivers to tax assessments, revenues and court commissions. Permitting female lawgivers to act as court commissioners. Giving justice court jurors 4 cents mileage, reducing the rate of interest on tax sale certificates from 5 to 4 per cent.

Reducing the rate of interest on tax sale certificates from 5 to 4 per cent. Giving county clerks $5 per day for examining and recording deeds. Fixing telephone license fees at 2 per cent, of the gross earnings. Providing for the punishment of owners of vicious dogs. Permitting meetings to determine whether an animal is a dog or a cat.

Providing for the appointment of additional judges for the state dependent school. Allowing religious preferences to be considered in sending children to state institutions. Providing for state depositories for public funds. Permitting convicts to receive spiritual advice from any minister who chooses to do so.

Enabling religious societies to organize mutual insurance companies. For the protection of the marks of trade-unions. Providing for the punishment of owners of vicious dogs. Permitting meetings to determine whether an animal is a dog or a cat.

NEW C. & N. W. TIME CARD.

A Daylight Train From Chicago to St. Paul Provided.

The summer schedule for the Northwestern railway is now being prepared, and many important changes in the time of passenger trains will take place. From headquarters the news comes that train No. 3, now leaving Chicago at 9 o'clock p. m., will be made a day St. Paul limited, leaving the metropolis at 8:30 a. m., the object being to have a daylight train from Chicago to St. Paul. Many other changes are in contemplation but to what extent has not yet been definitely determined. It is thought that the night St. Paul train from Chicago will be a consolidated train as far as Elroy. The Dakota passenger No. 1, now leaving Chicago at 8:30 a. m., will probably leave at 7:30 o'clock and be considered the local train, and No. 2 from the west will also be run several hours later. By the new arrangement it will necessitate a local train south which will leave Elroy and run to Madison or possibly to Janesville.

New Blocks Under Way and Others Planned.

ARCHITECTS KEPT BUSY.

G. G. Sutherland, L. C. Sloan, A. P. Burnham, Stewart A. Chase, Nels Carlson, E. M. Bostwick and Many Others Making Preparations to Build.

There will be many new houses and buildings erected in Janesville this summer. Contractors are hard at work on plans and specifications, and carpenters and masons are already in demand. Most of the buildings that are definitely decided upon are residences, although several business blocks are contemplated. C. B. Woodman, who lives just outside the city limits in the town of La Prairie, will build a $2,500 house this summer. Blair & Wray are hard at work preparing the frames and inside work for the new Presbyterian church. O. F. Nowlan is drawing plans for a new trotting barn for Hon. L. C. Sloan. Ground was broken this morning for Nels Carlson's row of tenement houses on Pease's Court. J. J. Hall will build a residence on Augusta street, Charles Skelly will build an addition to his Franklin street store, John Tackwood will build a new block adjoining his restaurant and Stuart A. Chase will put up a block adjoining J. B. McLean's store.

FREE DELIVERY LIMITED.

Hereafter It Will Extend Only to Streets Having Side Walks.

Janesville people who complain because free delivery does not extend to the outermost suburbs will get little comfort from the letter written to a Wisconsin postmaster by the first assistant postmaster-general. He says that the free delivery service and side-walks will go together in the future. The postmaster is notified that it appears from the report of an inspector that he is serving many citizens who live on streets which have no sidewalks, and that it is the opinion of the office that the free delivery service should be confined in all places to territory provided with sidewalks. The comfort of carriers during the inclement seasons must be provided for, and consequently the department has decided that when the winter season comes on, the carrier service will be thus limited.

BIG TRAINS ON THE C. & N. W.

Freight Traffic Through Janesville Unusually Heavy.

Thirty-three Chicago & Northwestern engines stood on the tracks in Janesville yards this morning. This is the largest number of engines ever in Janesville at one time. Fifteen were in the round house, and eighteen stood on the tracks outside. Janesville is getting to be a railroad city. Big trains are so common that they are unnoticed, and it takes less than half an hour for a train to pass housewives who live near the track never look up. Twenty cars is usually called a long train, but at 10:30 this morning a "double header" with Engineer Milbourne and Rowe and Conductor E. J. Gokey in charge pulled out with forty cars in the train. At 4:30 this morning a train of forty-five cars pulled out. In charge of Conductor Lyman and Engineer North. Shortly after another train with forty-nine cars pulled out. Engineer Thompson was in the cab and Conductor Thompson in the engine. Then Conductor Bennett and Engineer Champ took a train composed of fifty-nine cars.

WANT A LAKE IN THE PARK.

Third Ward Residents Seek Additional Landscape Features.

The question of making an artificial lake at the east end of court house park is being carried again this spring, and may be carried out before the season advances many weeks into summer. Very little excavation will be required, and a beautiful little lake can be made with little money. Then some of the beautiful lakeside promise to further ornament the park by furnishing flower beds and banks of foliage plants. About all that is necessary for this is a supply of water, which is to be had easily. This matter will be impressed on the members of the new park committee as soon as the committee is appointed, and through them the city may be induced to make a small appropriation to this ornament but the court house and Fourth ward parks. A little money thus expended would add much to the attractions of the parks.

WILL FORM A DRUM CORPS.

Lovers of Martial Music Make Plans at Post Hall.

An effort is being made to organize a drum corps in this city to consist of four fifes, four tenor drums and one bass drum. The project is likely to be carried out. A meeting was held at the Grand Army hall last evening for this purpose. While no definite action was taken, it developed that such an organization could be easily formed. Another meeting will be held next week, at which it is intended to organize the corps and get ready to furnish martial music.

A LUNATIC AT LARGE.

Marshal Acheson Arrests An Elgin Asylum Patient.

An insane man has been running at large in Janesville. Now he is once more in charge of the authorities of the Elgin asylum. His name is A. J. Tewksberry, and he is about 35 years of age. Tewksberry came to Janesville Wednesday, and engaged board at a private house. Last evening he got into his head that some one was after him, and he hunted up Marshal Acheson. "I want you to take my money and care for it," he explained. "I also wanted to get acquainted with you so you would not arrest me for vagrancy if my money ran out. I live at Elgin, Ill." The marshal made up his mind that the man was crazy and telegraphed to Elgin and received an answer saying that Tewksberry was an inmate of the asylum and that he had escaped. The marshal took him back to Elgin this morning.
